This paper has admonished the democrats of Lincoln county to leave no stone unturned in their efforts to elect the magnificent ticket which appears on this page and from what we can gather our pleadings have not been in vain. From every section of Lincoln county good reports come and it looks now as if democracy will win hands down. The democrats are working like Trojans and are determined that the whole ticket from circuit judge to constable shall win. The men composing the ticket are too well-known to make an introduction necessary. All are and have been citizens of this county for years with the exception of Mr. Chas. A. Hardin, the nominee for Commonwealth's attorney, who resides in Harrodsburg. Many of them have proven their fitness to fill any office they might aspire to hold. They are all good citizens and full worthy of the honors they seek. In fine it is an A 1 ticket, one any democrat should feel proud to support. That it will win there is no acintilla of doubt, but don't let that fact keep any one from working and voting. Remember the bigger the majority the greater the victory and do all in your power to make the thing as nearly unanimous as possible.

A NOVEL way to enforce prohibition, made possible under the Fitzhugh-Robinson liquor law limiting the number of saloons in each precinct—one to each 500 inhabitants—came to light at Fairfield, Texas, the other day. After having been dry for some time, Fairfield, in Freestone county, went wet and almost immediately applications for permits were filed with the controller for the maximum number of saloons allowed in that precinct. The controller approved the applications. Subsequently there were more applications and the controller refused them, advising that the precinct had secured all the licenses to which it was entitled. The disappointed applicants replied that no saloons had been opened, and that the applications were taken out by prohibitionists who resorted to that method to continue prohibition.

Two brutes at Aneta, N. D., caught a 12-year-old son of Simon McKenzie, who had taken the lead in the fight against whisky, and pouring coal oil on him, set fire to his clothes. He was fatally burned. The hellhounds who committed the atrocious crime should be burned at stake after being tortured in every way possible for a while.

THE Kentucky State Journal with its new dress and increased size looks good to us. We are glad to see the splendid paper prospering. May it continue to do so.

POLITICAL.

Judge Rufus W. Peckham, Associate Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, is dead at Albany, N. Y., after a long illness.

Patrick H. McCarren, State Senator and Democratic leader of Brooklyn, is dead. He was known as the "Boss of Brooklyn."

Mr. Milhon, republican nominee for Representative of Madison county, has withdrawn from the race, leaving an open field for L. H. Herrington, the democratic nominee.

J. H. Jones, of Madison, considered one of the strongest Republicans of the ticket, withdrew his name from the Sheriff's race, leaving the Democratic candidate, D. A. McCord, a clear field. The restraining order sued out by W. H. Jones against John L. Wells enjoining him from having his name printed on the ballots at the coming November election as the Republican nominee for County Judge of Laurel county was dissolved by Circuit Judge William Lewis.

At a big meeting held by the Negroes at the Lexington Opera house in the interest of the Fusion ticket, Rev. E. W. Hawthorne, a Negro preacher, urged the Negroes to arm themselves and go to the polls on election day, see that no repeater votes and to stand between the polls and any illegal voter.

In an open address at Corpus Christi, Tex., before the Interstate Inland Waterways League and the citizens of Corpus Christi, President Taft announced himself as strongly favoring a permanent and practical system of inland waterways as a means of controlling railroad rates, and said that he favored the policy of issuing bonds for carrying out a system of improvements.

If the independent voters will do their duty, Frank Linville, J. M. Roberts and Charlie McDowell will be elected by a big majority. Every true democrat will vote for these three men. Every true independent republican, who does not wear the collar of the ring that has cursed Pulaski so long, will vote for them. Every citizen of whatever political faith, who works for the best interests of the whole people, will vote for them.—Burnside Item.

This and That.

Charles Neely, a farmer living near Franklin, fell dead while sitting at the breakfast table.

The Veranda Hotel at Lebanon burned. The site had been purchased by the government for a postoffice building.

Judge R. L. Stout, circuit judge of the Scott district, decided that Georgetown went dry by one vote—521 to 520, in the election held 15 months ago.

Owen Dye, of Parkersburg, W. Va., and Roy Dalton, of Marietta, O., both drillers, were burned to death as the result of a gas explosion at Griffiths-ville, W. Va.

The predicted 14 cent level was reached in the cotton market Saturday. March cotton sold at that figure and May advanced to about $1 a bale over Friday's close.

A site for the proposed monument in memory of the late Grover Cleveland will be chosen in the near future and the location will most probably be in Princeton, N. J.

The funeral of Mrs. Basil W. Duke took place at Lexington Saturday under the auspices of the veterans and daughters of the Confederacy. Dean Craik, of Louisville, recited the Episcopal burial service.

William Eschle, at whose home in Omaha, Mrs. Thomas Wendt, an aged woman, was robbed of over $7,000 while she was doing the Eschle family's washing confessed having taken the money and returned.

During the past three years Manager Jennings, of the Detroit base ball team, has drawn $41,500 in salary and percentage. He wants enough money this year to total him $30,000 if his club again wins the pennant.

The board of governors of the American Textile Association has ordered all the big cotton mills of North and South Carolina to close down for a period of from 14 to 30 days in order to curtail the manufacture of cotton.

Alleging that she is confined in a sanitarium for the insane illegally and for the purpose of enabling her husband and others to get possession of her property, Mrs. Eliza Plunkett, sister of the late millionaire, Thomas Swope, of Kansas City, made application at Nashville, Tenn., for a writ of habeas corpus.

An exciting episode took place in the circuit court room at Georgetown Saturday when a crowd of 25 men invaded the room during recess and demanded of J. A. Edge, a Lexington attorney, that he produce Mrs. Kate Richardson, who was recently released from the Lexington asylum on a writ of habeas corpus through the efforts of Edge and other Lexington attorneys. Edge was later fined $500 and sentenced to six months in jail for contempt of court in failing to produce his client, Mrs. Richardson.

F. G. Conn brought to Lancaster yesterday 85 potatoes which weighed 63 pounds and which he says he raised in one hill.

A Negro who was killed by a street car in Louisville, had 86 rings in his pockets.

W. R. Cook, of Garrard, bought recently 76 feeders at 43¢.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Eld. J. G. Livingston will preach at Holdam's Mill next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Rev. S. W. Partee, of Sharpsburg, Bath county, will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and night.

Rev. Thad S. Tinsley, the evangelist, is assisting Pastor Saxby in a protracted meeting at the Christian church in Somerset.

The investigating committee of the Presbyterian Synod of New York reported sustaining the Presbytery of New York in ordaining Rev. Alexander Black, who was charged with heresy.

A large audience heard Dr. F. W. Allen, of Columbia, Mo., at the Christian church Sunday morning. His sermon on "Undenominational Church," showed much research and thought. An interesting feature of the entertainment was the excellent singing, including a duet by Mrs. J. G. Carpenter and Prof. Ireland.

The farewell services at the Baptist church Sunday night were largely attended and were most interesting. Rev. R. B. Mahoney acted as moderator and Revs. J. J. Dickey, D. M. Walker and the moderator spoke touchingly of the departure of the beloved pastor, Rev. J. Murray Taylor. The best singers in town were present and the music was an enjoyable feature of the evening. Misses Marie Mahoney and Minnie Sine sang a duet which was exceedingly well rendered. It is a source of genuine regret that Rev. Taylor is to leave Stanford. He has made many friends during his pastorate of 2½ years here and our people like him not only as a preacher but as a man. He leaves to-day and will preach his first sermon to his Washington City congregation next Sunday. The good wishes of Lincoln county people generally go with him.

Three robbers were captured while attempting to rob a bank at Kankakee, Ill.

Heart Strength

Heart strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, pulsating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds! It strengthens! It cures real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with
